Judicial Officer

To the Person in ①:

- The court cannot grant a long-term restraining order unless the person in ② has been personally given (served) a copy of your request and any temporary orders. To show that the person in ② has been served, the person who served the forms must fill out form JV-268, Proof of Personal Service.
- If you are unable to serve the person in ② in time, you may ask for more time to serve the documents.

To the Person in ②:

- If you want to respond in writing, mail a copy of your completed form JV-247, Response to Request for Juvenile Restraining Order, or form JV-259, Response to Request for Juvenile Restraining Order Against a Child, to the person in ① and file it with the court. You cannot mail form JV-247 or JV-259 yourself. Someone age 18 or older—not you—must do it.
- To show that the person in ① has been served by mail, the person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form JV-510, Proof of Personal Service—Juvenile, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the hearing.
- If you are unable to attend your court hearing or need more time to prepare your case, you may ask the judge to reschedule your court date.
- Whether or not you respond in writing, attend the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order at the hearing and tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the orders requested. Bring any evidence or witnesses you have.
- At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to three years.
- The judge may also make other orders about your children, and may again order you to turn in, sell, or store any firearms (guns), firearm parts, or ammunition that you own or have.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to for Disability Accommodation Request (form MC-410).
(Civ. Code, § 54.8.)
