④ Findings

The court finds that there is no longer clear and convincing evidence that:

- Respondent poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to himself or another person by having in the person's custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving firearms, ammunition, or magazines; and
- A gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to Respondent or to another person because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective or have been determined to be inadequate or inappropriate for the current circumstances.

There remains clear and convincing evidence that grounds continue to exist to support the order.
