FINDINGS AND ORDERS AFTER PERMANENCY HEARING—DELINQUENCY

12-MONTH 18-MONTH (only if reunification services extended at 12 months)

1. The court has read and considered and admits into evidence

- a. report of probation officer dated:
- b. Other (specify):

BASED ON THE FOREGOING AND ON ALL OTHER EVIDENCE RECEIVED, THE COURT FINDS AND ORDERS

2. a. Notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing was given as required by law.
- b. For child who is not present, the child received proper notice of their right to attend the hearing and voluntarily gave up that right to attend this hearing.
3. a. The child is may be an Indian child, and notice of the proceeding and the right of the tribe to intervene was provided as required by law. Proof of such notice was filed with this court.
- b. There is reason to believe that the child may be of Indian ancestry, and notice of the proceedings was provided to the Bureau of Indian Affairs as required by law. Proof of such notice was filed with this court.

Child returned home

4. The return of the child to their parent or legal guardian would not create a substantial risk of detriment to the safety, protection, or physical or emotional well-being of the child. Out-of-home placement is no longer necessary or appropriate. The probation department has complied with the case plan by making reasonable efforts to return the child safely home and to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.

Child remaining in out-of-home placement

5. By a preponderance of the evidence, the return of the child to their parent or legal guardian would create a substantial risk of detriment to the safety, protection, or physical or emotional well-being of the child. The factual basis for this conclusion is stated on the record.
6. The child's out-of-home placement is necessary.
7. a. The child's out-of-home placement is appropriate.
- b. The child's current placement is not appropriate. This hearing is continued for a report by the probation officer on the progress made to locate an appropriate placement.
8. For a child placed in a short-term residential therapeutic program or community treatment facility, the court has considered the evidence and documentation submitted under Welf. & Inst. Code, § 706.5(c)(1)(B) when determining the continuing necessity for and appropriateness of the placement.
9. The child has left their placement, and their whereabouts are unknown. Out-of-home placement continues to be necessary. The placement was was not appropriate. The probation officer has has not made reasonable efforts to locate the child.
10. The child is currently detained in juvenile hall. Out-of-home placement continues to be necessary. The placement was was not appropriate.
11. The child is placed outside the state of California, and that out-of-state placement
 - a. continues to be the most appropriate placement and is in the child's best interest.
 - b. is no longer the most appropriate placement for the child and is not in the best interest of the child. The matter is continued for a report by the probation officer on the progress made toward finding an appropriate placement for the child.
12. The probation officer has has not complied with the case plan by making reasonable efforts to return the child to a safe home through the provision of reasonable services designed to aid in overcoming the problems that led to the initial removal and continued custody of the child, and by making reasonable efforts to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent plan.

For a child 16 years of age or older in another planned permanent living arrangement, the court finds that the probation department has has not made the following ongoing and intensive efforts to return the child to a safe home or finalize the permanent plan:
